General-Major Medical Services Comrade KHODORKOV

The American Embassy has reported the following case to us.

In the city of Küstrin (Germany), there are American servicemen who were prisoners of the Germans in Stalag III, among them are 7 men who are hospitalized, to include; Sergeant Robert T. Bryuehr [Brewer] and private Alojze J. MAKLIN.

After capture of Küstrin by the Red Army Forces, an American, Captain NASH, sent BREWER and MAKLIN with other American soldiers to be under the observation of a Doctor Major, Medical Services of the Red Army who is the Chief of the field Hospital in Stalag III in Küstrin.

I ask for your assistance in a thorough investigation of the stated case and ask that you report its results regarding the fate of the stated Americans.
